

Leadership Asheville Seniors

Would you like to learn more about your community while

- ... meeting key people*
 - ... visiting interesting places*
 - ... examining challenging issues*
 - ... enhancing your quality of life?*
- ... Join Leadership Asheville Seniors 23

The North Carolina Center for Creative Retirement promotes opportunities for leadership, lifelong learning and community service for retirement-age people. Serving as a laboratory for the state and nation in designing and implementing innovative programs, the Center encourages the development of an age-integrated society. Center programs include:

- College for Seniors*
- Creative Retirement Exploration Weekend*
- Intergenerational Activities*
- Community Outreach and Campus Volunteer Projects*

A comprehensive look at infrastructure, people and volunteer opportunities.
- Sandy Teach

In what way do you hope to benefit from Leadership Asheville Seniors?

What do you think are the three most pressing issues facing Buncombe County?

How do you hope to contribute to the community in the future?

Applicant's signature _____ Date _____

Leadership Asheville Seniors is filled on a first-come, first-served basis.

Return this form to:

Leadership Asheville Seniors
North Carolina Center for Creative Retirement
CPO #5000
UNC Asheville
One University Heights
Asheville, NC 28804-8516

For more information, contact Michelle Rogers or 828/250-3871 or mrogers@unca.edu

Leadership Asheville Seniors

Mission of Leadership Asheville Seniors

To help you gain an indepth view of the past, present and future of Asheville and Buncombe County by taking you into the community, introducing you to the people who make it work, and encouraging you to ask hard questions as you learn about different sides of the issues.

To help you create new pathways for the retirement years by linking knowledge gained from Leadership Asheville Seniors with your experience and skills.

During nine daylong sessions in a variety of locations, Leadership Asheville Seniors draws on key people who help you focus on current community issues and challenges. Previous LAS classes explored:

- ⇒ Economic and neighborhood redevelopment plans while touring the riverfront
- ⇒ Visual and performing arts while backstage at a community theater and art gallery
- ⇒ Importance of rural communities and agribusiness from inside a tobacco barn
- ⇒ Connections between water supply and distribution while visiting a water treatment plant

If you are ready to widen your circle of friends, find new pathways to satisfaction, and uncover new chances to make a difference in the community, become part of Leadership Asheville Seniors 23. Join the tradition of more than 580 individuals who have graduated in the past 22 years. Find out why several newer programs across the country are modeled after this creative senior leadership program.

Schedule Wednesdays, Sept. 16–Nov. 11, 2009 • 8:30 a.m.–3:30 p.m.

Tuition $250 covers all materials, refreshments and administration.
Membership in the Center for Creative Retirement required.
Make checks payable to UNC Asheville.
No refunds after Aug. 26.

Leadership Asheville Seniors is a program of the North Carolina Center for Creative Retirement at UNC Asheville.
Visit our Web site at www.unca.edu/ncccr/programs/leadership/las.html

*LAS is about opportunity—to get involved and learn about
Asheville/Buncombe.
—Dick Murray*

Leadership Asheville Seniors Registration

Name _____ Name for nametag _____

Home mailing address _____ ZIP _____ Phone _____

E-mail _____ Years in Buncombe County _____ Male Female

Birthplace _____ Moved from _____ Birthdate _____

Primary occupation(s) _____ Retired from _____

Current volunteer activities _____

Special Interests

Community _____

Personal _____

Hobbies _____

(continued on other side)