

How to Use this Guide

This guide is meant to offer advice on courses to take in the first year of college in order to progress towards a degree for new students at UNC Asheville, or their advisors. Completing a degree will require completion of both the Integrative Liberal Studies (ILS) curriculum as well as major requirements set by the department you choose to declare a major in.

Please read the general plan first. This has information on 100-level requirements for ILS. Then you may review the section on your intended major. Designing your first-year plan will likely consist of beginning with the recommendations under your major, and then adding any and all ILS courses that you feel comfortable taking in your first year.

Psychology

- A major in Psychology requires two courses at the 100-level. Those courses are PSYC 101: General Psychology: Brain and Behavioral Processes (3) and PSYC 102: General Psychology: Personality and Social Processes (3).
- These do not need to be taken in any particular order. The Psychology major does not require courses outside of the major, but recommends to majors additional courses in math, biology, or computer sciences.
