

UNC Asheville Strategic Plan

Student Learning Goals

These learning goals for students are taken from the section of the UNC Asheville Strategic Plan titled, "UNC Asheville Students."

1. Students demonstrate an accountability to their own moral and ethical principles.
2. Students demonstrate a responsibility to individuals, community, and humanity.
3. Students develop a service orientation.
4. Students develop a sense of adventure.
5. Students develop a respect for differences.
6. Students discover the joys of entrepreneurship, enlightened risk-taking, and responsible activism.
7. Students understand the interconnectedness of all disciplines, ideas, actions, and individuals.
8. Students practice lively engagement with others and the world.
9. Students build a strong understanding of self, purpose, connection to the world, and their potential for changing it.
10. Students can articulate liberal arts as a foundation for their life-long passion for learning.
11. Students develop the inspiration, skills, and discipline to identify individual, community, and global needs.
12. Students develop critical thinking and problem solving skills.
13. Students develop courage, inclination, and work ethic to develop solutions, work toward them, and inspire others to do the same.
14. Students identify their unique University experience as something to cherish and support throughout their lives.
